.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to Issue a writ, order or direction more in the nature of Mandamus directing the respondents to allow the petitioner to appear for the written test and interview for the post of Store Keeper which are schedule to be held on or after 20.8.2004 without insisting his name from the Employment Exchange sponsorship.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.M.RAMGOPAL RAO

Counsel for the Respondent Nos.1 and 2: GP FOR EMPLOYMENT & TRAINING

The Court at the stage of admission made the following:

HONOURABLE DR. JUSTICE G.YETHIRAJULU

WRIT PETITION NO.14636 OF 2004

ORDER:

The petitioner approached this Court through this Writ Petition mentioning that the respondent is proposing to fill up one vacancy of Store Keeper and that the respondent requested the Employment Exchange to sponsor 20 candidates for the purpose of selection of one of those candidates, and that as the respondent failed to give wide publicity of publishing in newspapers and all media, caused any amount of prejudice to the petitioner. Therefore, he requests that a direction shall be given to the respondent to permit the petitioner to sit in the examination proposed to be conducted by the respondent.

2. The petitioner did not furnish any details as to when the post was notified, when the Employment Exchange was addressed and when the test is going to be held etc., except an oral representation. Unless it is made out that the proposal made by the respondent is in gross violation of the existing Rules, the Court is not supposed to interfere with the said process.

3. The Writ Petition is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.
